COMMUNITY AND MEMBER DIRECTORY

The Community is an online hub which helps to strengthen our thriving network. It is a designated space to ask questions of each other, a rich resource of shared learning and experiences, a place to seek and offer advice and support, and the chance for members to network outside of our programme of events.

The Member directory is an interactive area where members can view, search, connect and message other members. By connecting with others, our members can feel less isolated, and more connected, inspired and supported.

By being part of both spaces, your name, job title and organisation and organisations region will be visible to other ACEVO members, along with any additional information you choose to add.

If at any point you do not wish to be part of the Community or Member directory, login to the member portal to manage your preferences.

HOW ELSE CAN WE CONTACT YOU?

The main way we will get in touch with you is via email. Please tell us how else you would like to hear from us about your membership.
